Russian art at the Baker Mamonova Gallery. The iconic art deco De la Warr Pavilion sits right on Bexhill seafront and showcases the work of world-class artists and hosts a series of live evening events. Before you leave, take a stroll on Bexhill's new contemporary seafront.

Take the Coastal Culture Trail and experience a weekend of culture by the sea...

If you begin your trip in Hastings, start in the historic old town with a visit to the Jerwood Gallery. Sitting just next to Hastings fishing beach, the gallery is the home to a collection of 20th and 21st century painting and an exhibition programme showcasing the best of modern and contemporary British art. Hastings Old Town has a number of excellent boutiques, independent galleries and antique shops. Take a ride on the funicular railway, one of the oldest of its kind in the county and be sure to sample some of the local fish and chips too!

In Eastbourne you can experience Towner gallery's renowned collection of historic and modern works, which is complemented by major exhibitions of contemporary art. Towner sits at the foot of the South Downs so round your trip off with a walk in some of the South's most beautiful countryside, which has inspired many of Britain's most celebrated artists.

Rent a bike, pack a picnic and enjoy the coastal cycle route, which runs from Hastings to Bexhill.
